

Task Twelve – Graphing some of your data.

It is necessary to show some of your information in the form of a graph. In order to do this, it is best to export your data table as an Excel spreadsheet. Once you have done this, select suitable columns (e.g. model, price, etc) that would make a graph.